Pierce's Rheumatic Cure

FOR RHEUMATISM & NEURALGIA.

A Tried and Sure Cure.

This remedy is the result of the research of one of the proprietors who had been a great sufferer for years, and who had tried all the celebrated remedies and the skill of many physicians without obtaining relief. A radical cure was obtained, and numerous similar cures attested among his friends and acquaintances, without an exception, have proved that as soon as it matters the public. It was not up without a thought of making it an article of merchandise, but the numerous and increasing demands for it, as its merits have become known, have induced him to advertise it for the benefit of sufferers like himself.

It is an infallible remedy, if persistently used, for those painful maladies of Rheumatism and Neuralgia, as testimonials, too abundant to give in this advertisement, will show. Among those too unanimous to mention are Gardner Hopkins, M. M. Talbot, J. M. Merrill, Foreman of Hinckley and Kelly's Foundry; C. H. Emery, and others of Bangor; W. F. Whitehouse, the Lynde Hotel, Mrs. Mansfield, Lamb's Alvarado House, Skowhegan, numerous others have been restored to health, and gives his grateful testimony.

It is an internal remedy, acting on the blood, freeing it from impurities and imparting new and healthful vitality to the whole system. Read by children and those of the most delicate constitution with perfect safety. Full directions with each bottle.

Price per bottle $1 00. Liberal discount to the trade. Sent by express anywhere. Address

At a meeting of the legal voters of Westbrook, Saturday, it was decided by a vote of 241 to 235 to reconsider the vote of May 22, 1874, authorizing the erection of a building for town hall and high school accommodations at a cost of $15,000.

There were seven bids for finishing the iron work of the new Custom House at Rockland, ranging from $6,653 00 to $1,600 00. The Watson Manufacturing Company, of Patterson, New Jersey, made the lowest bid. The work on the building is rapidly advancing, two courses of stone above the water table is laid, and the third course was laid Monday. The work is to be pushed ahead rapidly.

A grand base ball tournament is to be held on the horse car grounds at Dearing, commencing June 29th. It will be open to all clubs in this State. Two prizes will be given to senior clubs, one of $100, and one of $50, and two prizes to junior clubs, one of 50, and one of $25. All entries must be made by June 20th. An entry fee of $5 will be charged for senior, and $3 for junior clubs.

There has been considerable excitement about town this week by the reported or attempted absconding of a certain trader of West Athens who had bought goods on credit of Skowhegan dealers, to the amount of $6000, and of Portland dealers $4000 more.—He is said conveyed his entire stock of goods in store to another man, who evidently bought them in good faith. Numerous writs have been issued, and there is considerable excitement in the goodly town of Skowhegan.

FARMING AND GARDENING IN DELAWARE.—The Horticulturist, in an editorial note, claims high honors for the fruit State of Delaware. It says that, during the strawberry season, the market train from that State to New York has reached as high as one hundred cars, with no less than 400,000 quarts, in a single morning, while, for days, the supply averaged thirty to fifty cars, and over 100,000 quarts. The State of Delaware is the largest fruit State on the Atlantic coast: its strawberry crop of 1873 was over 3,000,000 quarts, its peach crop over 1,000,000 baskets.—It is in the largest poultry State in the Union, the total value of poultry and eggs shipped to market is larger than all its total receipts from fruit. Delaware's sweet potatoes command a premium of one dollar per bushel above all others.

NEW PUBLICATIONS

PHANTASMION. This volume written by Sara Coleridge while on a sick bed, was published in 1847, it being given to the world at that time with no author's name, with illustrations, and the edition was limited to two hundred and fifty copies. The volume is again reviewed and sent out to the world this time under more favorable auspices. The story deals with mortals and fairies and at this day when fairy stories are few and often ill conceived, this will be an exception and a good one. The author's only work of fiction, it contains the delicate muse, nature, the melodious verse, the clear language and purity of conception which will well repay the careful reader for his pains. Roberts Brothers, Publishers, Boston. For sale by Messrs D Bugbee & Co.

MERIDIANA. This is a story by Jule Verne, in which as he went, fiction mingling science and extreme improbability are woven into a story. In his case he took for his embodiment and three Russians in South Africa and their many adventures in a long "fan are of meridians" to obtain the correct value of a metre, which was the object of their expedition. In some particulars the volume is quite interesting, but to the general reader of America the book will not be considered as equal to the average of English works of fiction. Scribner, Armstrong & Co., Publishers, N. Y. For sale by Messrs D Bugbee & Co.

HALF HOUR RECREATIONS IN POPULAR SCIENCE. The growing demand for short articles on books on popular science, has called forth the Recreations of Science and Art, and will afford the reader much valuable food for thought. The publishing of these papers compiled from the writings of eminent scientists, will be without doubt fully appreciated by students on the subjects treated of and the demand for the issuing will increase. Estes & Lauriat, Publishers, Boston. For sale at Bugbee's & Duren's.

THE PROMISE AND THE POWER. It is a volume which will be read with interest by professed Christians as it puts especially with the power and presence of the Lord with his people. The author, Amos Shipton, is well known as a writer on religious subjects and those who have read his works, THE LIGHT, THE LOST, JESUS, WARNING REPROVE, etc., which she has given to the public, will take up this volume and peruse it with pleasure and profit. Published by Henry Hoyt, Boston. For sale by Messrs D Bugbee & Co.

May [illegible] 1874.

A WORD FOR BANGOR.

We notice that Dr. Dio Lewis is using Bangor as a horrible example of the bad effects of prohibitory liquor laws, and that through his efforts our city is becoming extensively advertised as the most drunken community on the continent. He is principally engaged just now in writing letters to the newspapers, extracts from which are going the rounds of our exchanges. In a letter to the Portland Press he repeats the stale arguments of the rumsellers against prohibitory legislation and treats the declarations of every temperance organization in Maine with contempt, by declaring that prohibition has only served to increase the consumption of liquor. These arguments are expected from some quarters, but when put forth by one who assumes prominence as a temperance reformer, they strike strangely upon the ears of those who have been battling for the cause in this State for twenty five years, and who still believe firmly in the power of legal as well as moral suasion.

In a letter to the Cincinnati Gazette, the main object of which is to magnify his peculiar plan by discrediting prohibitory laws, he says that "an earnest friend of the law" in Bangor told him that there were three hundred places where drinks were sold in this city; in fact that Bangor, having only 15,000 inhabitants, enjoyed a drinking saloon to every [illegible] of the population, a greater proportion he thinks than can be found in any town in Ohio. Now we do not know how the number of drinking saloons was estimated, but the fact that our population is given at nearly one-fifth less than the actual figures, warrants an inference that the local liquor traffic was proportionally exaggerated to render the statement more startling. No one doubts that there is a great deal of liquor selling in this city, as there is also in every other large city in Maine, and for the purpose of arousing local public sentiment even an extravagance of statement would be readily excused; but we cannot see how the temperance cause in Bangor is to be aided by having Dr. Lewis travel about the country filling the newspapers with squibs in which our community is held up to derision as the most besotted of any in the land. If the liquor statistics of Bangor were truthfully given in connection with similar statistics of other communities, we should not complain if we suffered by the comparison, but when this city is brought especially to public notice in a manner calculated to convey a broadcast impression that the principal occupation of our people is getting drunk, we protest that the temperance cause is not benefited by such detraction. Without the actual figures we cannot institute a comparison between our own and other cities in the State, but with such means as we have for judgment, we do not believe that the ratio of rum to population would be found to differ materially. Certain it is that any one who has been led by the published statements to believe that our street are filled with reeling drunkards, has been very grossly deceived. Drunkenness we have, too much of it, as is the case in other localities, but we can assure the readers of Dr. Lewis's paragraphs that our community is very largely composed of sober, intelligent, industrious and very respectable people. Our population is about 20,000, which would give at the usual rate about 4,000 voters, and we are informed that the various temperance organizations in the city embrace an aggregate membership of [illegible] persons, a large proportion of them adults, pledged to total abstinence and actively laboring for the cause. This is a rather more favorable showing than would be expected in the city which Dr. Lewis has selected as a warning to the whole country. The Portland Press, noticing the currency given to his statements, very promptly resents the injustice to a Maine community, and pointedly says,

Why don't he say that every man, woman and child in Bangor, has a rum shop of his own, and that the Bangor theological professors warmly commend the system, because everyone getting drunk by himself at home, protects the whole community from the temptations and vices of the street. It is provoking that men should attempt to do things which they have not capacity enough to do well, even if it is lying.

We have the warmest sympathy for every sincere advocate and every well-meaning effort in behalf of temperance. For twenty years we have supported the Maine Law, which is to-day as earnestly championed by the temperance leaders and organizations of the State as it has ever been, and when Dr Lewis puts his snap-judgment against the deliberate opinions of so many who are as intelligent and sincere as himself, we are inclined to regard him as a quack reformer who decries every other remedy to puff his own. Any one who has travelled much in the West will appreciate the coolness of his suggestion that Ohio should send a delegation to Maine to witness the ravages of drink. This is what he says:

"I am sure the friends in Ohio are sufficiently interested in the temperance cause to send a committee to Maine to spend a week or two investigating the workings of the prohibitory law, and I am sure they would be amazed at the facts. And yet I did not see an open drinking place in the State. There is no doubt that the traffic has been driven under cover, and there is not a shadow of doubt that the consumption of drinks in the State of Maine is enormous."

There is another specious statement. If all the liquor traffic has been driven under cover Dr. Lewis could hardly have seen much of it in his brief visit to the State, and his information about the enormous consumption of drinks was probably derived without investigation. One would think that something had been gained when so sharp a man as the Doctor failed to discover an open drinking place in the State; but he would have us believe that the glaring signs and tempting display of liquors along the streets of Ohio cities and towns are highly conducive to temperance. There has been more earnest and systematic labor in every field of temperance effort in Maine than in any other section of the country or the world, and if the result is truly stated by Dr. Lewis, very poor encouragement is offered for a continuance of the battle against strong drink. We do not accept his facts or his opinions, but believe with those who have given time and care to the investigation, that so far from being a failure the temperance policy of Maine has not only been highly beneficial in the State, but has also given the most powerful stimulus to reformatory efforts throughout the country.

The ladies of Bangor have exhibited wisdom in avoiding the sensational methods of Dr. Lewis, and we place a higher value upon the least of their quiet exertions than upon the words of a frothy talker. It is one thing to fight an evil which exists here as it does elsewhere, and quite another to publish abroad a distorted picture of a single phase of one social condition as representing the character of the community. The washing of dirty linen involves not only a question of taste but one of expediency, and it has generally been deemed judicious to perform the operation at home. If Dr. Lewis can help us in any good work he will be welcome to come here and labor, but he will earn no thanks from the people of Maine or of Bangor by misrepresenting them in order to gratify his passion for notoriety.

A JOB DEFEATED. The Boston Journal's special says "There was a very bitter debate in the House Monday on the proposition to pay the Choctaw Indians $2,330,000. The amendment was, however, defeated. The defeat is largely due to the persistent efforts of Eugene Hale of Maine. Mr. Hale very plainly intimated that there had been some very astounding lobbying operations in connection with the attempts to secure favorable recognition from the House for this claim. He thought at best that if the appropriation was to be made it should be very carefully guarded, so that under the terms of the treaty it might be paid to the Indians themselves for school and other civilizing purposes, and not to be delivered to two irresponsible men."

The Portland Advertiser, which unwittingly copied the silly and malicious story that Mr. Egery was defeated last year by Senator Hamlin's influence, very honorably set the matter right by publishing a letter from a Bangor correspondent, showing that we very nearly lost our whole delegation and that there was a difference of but three votes between Messrs. Egery and Hatch. General apathy was the trouble at that election, and it is well understood here that if Mr. Egery had made any personal effort—which his modesty prevented him from doing—he would have been easily elected.

THE CRISIS IN FRANCE. The Chamber of the French Assembly on Monday, was crowded with Deputies and spectators. Casimer Perier introduced the constitutional bill prepared by the Left Centre, and moved that its consideration be declared "urgent." He said the country demanded a termination of the provisional state. He urged a union against Bonapartism and demagogues.

The speaker was frequently interrupted by the Right, and warmly applauded by the Left. Laboulaye supported the motion for urgency. He said recent events had shown the dangers of a provisional condition. A monarchy was impossible. The empire would only lead to the invasion and oppression of France. The republic was the government of all for all, and its establishment would inspire the country with confidence.

General Changarnier of the Right Centre and Raoul Duval of the Right opposed the motion. De Kerdrel of the Right warned the members that if a majority of the Assembly was changed Marshal MacMahon might consider it his duty to resign the Presidency.

The vote was then taken on the motion for "Urgency," and it was agreed to—yeas, 345; nays, 341. All the Ministers voted against it, but in their capacity as members of the Assembly only, the motion not being made a Cabinet question.

Urgency having been declared, the bill was referred to a committee of thirty.

M. de la Rochefoucauld of the Extreme Right then introduced a resolution in substance as follows, which was read with profound silence: "The Assembly declares that the Government of France is a monarchy; that the throne belongs to the head of the House of France; that Marshal MacMahon may assume the title of Lieutenant of the Kingdom; and that the National institutions shall be determined by agreement between the King and the National representatives." Great excitement followed the reading of the resolution.

M. Rochefoucauld moved that it be referred to a committee of thirty.

The motion was rejected by a majority of 100 votes. The Ministers, with the exception of M. Taillaud, voted against it.

The Assembly then adjourned until Tuesday.

It is stated that Rochefoucauld resigned his mission as Embassador to Great Britain before introducing the resolution.

The Bonapartist Deputies held a conference before the sitting, and came to the conclusion that it would be of no use to introduce a counter motion against the Left Centre.

The leading journals of Illinois and Indiana do not appear to be very much impressed with the work of the Independent or Farmers' Conventions which were recently held in those States. The Indianapolis Sentinel, which has been a good deal interested in the Indiana movement, comes to the conclusion that party making isn't encouraging work, and calls the resolutions on the currency an affront to the intelligence of a civilized community, a "gibbering fustian" which the solid good sense of the State will render a dead letter. The Journal of the same city says if the Republicans were to put forth such a platform it would denounce and spit upon it.

THE TRANSPORTATION QUESTION. It is stated from Washington that the Committee on Transportation on the Seaboard will not recommend the passage of the St. Phillips' Canal bill, but propose instead that the President be authorized to appoint a board of engineers—two from the army, two from the coast survey and three from civil life—to make a thorough survey and examination of both the canal and jetty plan of improvement and report to Congress. For this purpose $30,000 are to be appropriated.

POLITICAL AND PERSONAL.

Samuel Craighead of Dayton, Ohio, is announced as the Republican candidate for Congress from that District.

Gov. Allen fills the inflation Democracy of Ohio with sorrow by warmly indorsing the President's financial "memorandum."

The Waterville Mail urges all Republicans to attend the caucuses whether they are for Hamlin, Drummond, Washburn or Perham. —That is good advice.

Mr. White, a member of the New Hampshire Legislature, has resigned his office because he thinks his ward is not entitled to as many members as were elected.

The New York Commercial Advertiser thinks that "General Grant has suffered very severely in consequence of not being able to appreciate the greatness of some people."

The N. Y. Tribune's special says the only man in the Honest Currency party who is displeased at the publication of the President's views is Mr. Conkling, and the cause of his dissatisfaction is said to be that the President did not use him as the medium of communication.

The Charleston Courier of the 9th, makes a summary of South Carolina officials under indictment, as follows: Governor, 1; county treasurers, 8; sheriffs, 2; school commissioner, 1; trial justice, 1; county commissioners, 24. This looks as if the people of South Carolina are able to right their own affairs when they set about it in earnest.

The Grand Master of the Patrons of Husbandry in Missouri, has recently issued a circular letter to the subordinate Granges of that State, reiterating the truth that the Grange "is not a political organization." He says: "No Grange, if true to its obligations, can discuss political or religious questions, nor call political conventions, nor nominate candidates, nor even discuss their merits in its meetings.

At Hartford, Conn., on Monday, subscription books for a new accident insurance company were opened. Among the largest subscribers to its stock were Senator Jones, of Nevada, $75,000, and Samuel L. Clemens (Mark Twain) $50,000.

Rejected 72 to 71. Not two-thirds.

On motion of Mr. Butler of Mass., the Judiciary Committee were discharged from further consideration of affairs of the Western Judicial District of Arkansas, the House having already passed a bill abolishing the District.

Mr. Orr of Iowa moved to suspend the rules and go into Committee of the Whole on the bill to indemnify holders of pre-emption and homestead certificates and certificates of entry and patents to lands within the Des Moines River Grant, on account of the failure of the title. Agreed to and the House went into Committee of the Whole on the bill.

After a long discussion the Committee rose without coming to any conclusion on the bill.

Mr. Orr of Iowa, moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill. Agreed to—yeas 150, nays 70. The bill appropriates $404,225 to be used for the Secretary of the Interior for the purpose of securing a relinquishment of the title to lands laying north of the Des Moines river in the State of Iowa which may be held by the Des Moines navigation and Railroad Company, or persons holding said lands, either by entry or under the pre-emption or homestead laws of the United States.

Mr. Wilson of Ind., from the Joint Investigation Committee on the District of Columbia, made a report which was ordered to be printed. He also reported a bill for the government of the District of Columbia, and gave notice that he would call it up for action at 2 o'clock to-morrow.

The Speaker announced the appointment of Messrs. Butler of Mass., Frye and Potter as a conference committee on the Geneva Award bill.

Mr. Beck of Ky. moved to suspend the rules and pass a bill for the relief of the owners and purchasers of land sold for direct taxes in the insurrectionary States. Agreed to.

Mr. Tremain from the Conference Committee on the bankruptcy bill made a report and proceeded to explain it. The report was also advocated by Messrs. Eldridge and Butler of Mass., not as being what the Committee or House desired, but as an improvement on the existing law. After further discussion of a colloquial character the report was agreed to as agreed to yesterday in the Senate. The bill now goes to the President for approval.

The House took a recess until evening which time was devoted to reports from the committees on invalid pensions, etc.

NEW YORK CITY

THE BRICKLAYERS' STRIKE.

New York, June 16. The bricklayers strike is likely to be generally enforced to day although many of the workmen regret it and say they only submit on compulsion of the leaders. There is some disagreement among the employers as to the policy of paying advanced wages owing to jealousy and ill feeling growing out of competition among builders for contracts. Most of the large builders say they will never yield to the strikers' demands, and unless new men can be had will stop business. O'Brien, contractor for the new building, notified his men last night that he would not pay the advanced wages, and work on that structure will probably stop to-day. A few workmen belonging to the union refuse to stop work and say that they will keep on no matter what orders the leaders may give.

A WORKMAN BEATEN AND STABBED

Michael Bowler, a plasterer, who had taken the place of a striker in 20th street, was assaulted on his way home last night, severely beaten and stabbed. On the approach of the police his assailants fled, but Bowler held on to the ruffian and he was locked up to answer. Bowler's injuries are pronounced dangerous.

WALL STREET MATTERS

There is some shakiness reported in Wall street. Rumors are current that another well known brokers' firm has suspended, but no name has transpired. The suspension of Turner Bros was caused by advancing money to Western railway companies on inadequate securities, the greater part of which were the Indianapolis, Bloomington & Western Railroad. Their failure does not effect the stock market except to beget an uneasy feeling.—E. W. Berry & Co., brokers, a small firm, suspended to-day. Counterfeit coupons of the Central Pacific Railroad bonds are believed to be in circulation in Europe. One of them was to day received from a German city. It is not known that any of these counterfeits are in circulation in this country.

There has been a heavy advance in Sterling Exchange rates, from 489 to 491½. Gold is also strong at 11⅞. Governments are ⅛@¼ higher. Stocks are steadier.

THE BROOKLYN YACHT RACE.

The seventeenth annual regatta of the Brooklyn Yacht Club took place to-day. Seven schooners, three first class sloops, eleven second class, four third class sloops participated. The distance for schooners and first class sloops was 40 miles; for second class, 32 miles; and for third class sloops, 22 miles. The contest was completed in the creditable time of four hours, twenty-five minutes and twenty five seconds. The schooner tidal wave won Flag Officers and Club prize and the Comet the Union prize. For first class sloops the Undine won the Flag Officers' and Club prizes and the T. B. Asten the Union prize. For second class sloops the Schemer won the Flag Officers' and Club prizes. For third class sloops the W. T. Lee won the Flag Officers' and Club prizes and the Brooklyn the Union prize.

LYNCHING DESPERADOES.

St. Louis, June 16. A letter from Venita, Indian Territory, says a vigilance committee lately formed in that territory extending to Kansas, for the purpose of ridding the country of the band of outlaws who defy the authorities, steal horses, and depredate generally, within a short time have lynched John Blythe, John Friend, Young Cochrane, Dock Goddard and two others. Seventeen other desperadoes are on the list of the committee, most of whom will be ordered out of the country, while Joe Queen and Morgan, the leaders of the gang, will be killed at sight.

WASHINGTON

THE TIMES ON THE "LIBEL" BILL.

New York, June 16. The Times' Washington despatch says the libel bill was undoubtedly deliberately planned by people who feel aggrieved at the liberty which newspapers have taken with their names, and it was shrewdly and carefully arranged. It is doubtful whether the bill goes through the House.

The Tribune's despatch says the object of this bill is to afford Carpenter and Conkling an opportunity to get the press in their power.

THE DISTRICT COMMITTEE'S WORK.

Washington, June 15. The District Special Committee made its report to Congress to-day. It makes thirty pages and condemns the practices of the Board of Public Works in its management of affairs of the district.

THE SUMNER MEMORIAL

At a meeting of contributors to the proposed Sumner Memorial to-day it was stated that owing to numerous recent calls for immediate aid to which citizens of Boston had liberally responded the receipts for the subscription had not been as large as under other circumstances they would have been. After an informal discussion it was decided that the amount now on hand (about $16,000) should be increased to $50,000, and this should be used in the erection of the Memorial which is to take the form of a statue of Mr. Sumner.

THE TUNNEL BILL.

In the Senate this afternoon the amended Hoosac Tunnel bill of Mr. Learned was refused a passage by a vote of 17 to 17. The bill of Senator Bailey was then ordered to a third reading, 17 to 16. The matter will come up again to-morrow. The House rejected the Lee & New Haven Railroad bill upon its enactment this afternoon, 87 yeas to 92 nays.

LOUISIANA.

THE TERRIBLE EFFECTS OF THE INUNDATION.

St. Louis, June 16. Dr. King, agent of Gov. Kellogg of Louisiana, and Mayor Wiltz of New Orleans addressed the Louisiana Relief Committee. He says that fully a third of the State is still under water one or two feet deep, and 70,000 or 80,000 people are now in destitute circumstances. Much sickness prevails, and unless the people obtain relief suffering during the summer will be almost beyond precedent. Additional contributions were made.

THE TROUBLE AT THE MINES.

New York, June 16. A letter from Nelsonville says the effect of the troubles in the mining region has damaged the manufacturing and other interests in Columbus within a radius of 150 miles of that city more than a million of dollars. The negroes employed in place of the striking miners are mostly large men who have seen service in the late rebellion, and are tallied off into companies under officers, all thoroughly armed and well drilled. They keep pickets out to prevent the threatened raids of strikers from surprising them, and in the plain they have an encampment under military rules. Reinforcements of non-union miners are continually arriving, and the mines will soon be in full working condition.

FOREIGN NEWS.

FRANCE.

THE PROCEEDINGS OF THE ASSEMBLY ON MONDAY.

London, June 16. The Times' Paris despatch contains the following particulars of the proceedings in the Assembly yesterday, in addition to last night's report. Sainte Croix, supported by all the Right Centre submitted a bill providing that McMahon's powers be confirmed with title of President of the Republic, that a Second Chamber be organized; that the right to dissolve both branches of the Assembly be conferred upon President MacMahon, and that his successor be appointed by the Chamber in Convention. This bill was referred to a committee of thirty, together with that of the Left Centre. The Times correspondent adds that is that the committee of thirty now have received an imperative mandate forcing them to promptly organize either the Septennate without proclaiming the Republic or to constitute and declare the definitive Republic under President MacMahon. It is probable that the commission will organize a Septennate and the Assembly will ratify its decision; otherwise the majority hitherto with the Government will shift to the Left which in all probability would cause MacMahon to resign.

THE EXACT RESULT OF THE SITTING,

MINISTERS WILL RESIGN.

It is not unlikely that in consequence of yesterday's proceedings some of the Ministers will resign, but there will be no absolute Ministerial crisis. In a held previous to the sitting of the Assembly, General Cissey and others urged MacMahon to send a message to the Assembly reminding it of its promise to organize his powers, but the majority of the Ministers were averse to such a step. Ministers Cissey, Magne, Grivart and Decazes voted in favor of Rochefoucauld's motion to refer his Monarchical resolution to a committee of thirty. Deputies Blanc, Turnes, Pegrat and D'Audiffret Pasquier and twenty members of the Right Centre abstained from voting on Prier's motion for urgency on the Left Centre's constitutional bill.

Paris, June 16. The Republican journals speak in the most eulogistic terms of the members of both the Right and Left Centres of the Assembly because of their vote yesterday against the restoration of a Monarchy. They say the vote, though it does not proclaim the Republic, shows that the Monarchy is impossible. The Orleanist journals affect to consider that the action of the Assembly leaves the situation unchanged, but express the belief, nevertheless, that the consequences of the vote will be the consolidation of President MacMahon's powers.

The Twin Sisters. The performance of this charming little opera at City Hall last evening drew a full house and everything passed off to the satisfaction of those having the matter in charge. The leading roles, "Maud Stanley" and "Florence Stanley," were taken by Miss Dora Wiley and Miss Eva Smyth. Miss Wiley sang finely, but the music was not of a cast to show to perfection her rich voice, yet she and Miss Smyth both made the most of their parts, which they rendered with much vivacity and ability. The other parts, taken by Misses Lottie Davis, Alice Margesson, May Chick, Annie Cutter, Minnie Smart, Minnie Short, Hattie De Sachet, Carro Leach, Carrie Morton and Flora Haines, were given with expression and taste. The pianist, Miss Mary B. Cutter, played the accompaniments with precision and in a manner that showed her to be possessed of the rare qualifications which are necessary to make a really excellent player. The second part of the entertainment opened with a Fantasia Brillante, which Miss Cutter played finely. The quartette, "When the dews," by Messrs. Haynes, Holbrook, Moody and Crowell, was rendered finely, as was the song by Mrs. W. F. Shaw. Masters Cutter and Morrill sang "The wind and the Harp" charmingly, and Master Charles B. Margesson rendered "Come live with me" in a manner hardly to be expected from one so young. The closing piece, "'Tis evening brings my heart," was sung in fine style by Master F. J. Files.

BANGOR TROTTING PARK.

JUNE MEETING—FIRST DAY

The June meeting on the Bangor Trotting Park opened yesterday afternoon under very favorable auspices, the weather being just cool enough for comfort and the track in excellent condition. There was not a very large attendance, and, indeed, this was not expected on the first day, but those who did attend witnessed some excellent trotting.

THE FIRST RACE,

called at a quarter to three o'clock, was for horses that have never beaten three minutes, for which there were nine entries. C. G. Simmons' bay gelding Bay Dan, L. C. Titus' sorrel gelding Blondin and S. F. Leighton's bay gelding Point Breeze were withdrawn, however, leaving six horses to start, having positions in the following order: J. B. Chase's g. g. Honest Farmer, O. Dugan's br. g. Major, S. Witham's g. g. Gray Jacket, E. T. Monroe's g. m. Starlight, C. G. Andrews' ch. g. Speckle, and F. S. Palmer's b. g. Corinth Boy. The word was given at the second scoring, and the horses got off well, but all but Starlight and Honest Farmer broke at the first turn. The former drew ahead, closely pressed by the latter, while the others did a great deal of running to the half-mile pole. At the third quarter the three grays forged ahead, and, though at times all were up, they came in before the others, Starlight coming under the wire first in 2 39½, Farmer second, and Grey Jacket third. The others were all shut out by the distance flag.

In the second heat the horses got the word at the first attempt and kept well together to the first quarter, when Starlight got the lead, followed by Farmer, Gray Jacket making a bad break. Farmer kept gaining, collared Starlight at the half-mile pole and then passed her. There was a sharp struggle to the third quarter, and at the last turn the two were neck and neck, but Farmer broke on the home stretch, and Starlight came in half-a length ahead, in 2 51½, Gray Jacket barely saving a distance.

A very even start was obtained for the third heat, but at the turn Starlight outfooted her antagonists as on the previous heats. Farmer pressed her close, however, all the way round to the third quarter, when he gained a position at her side, but she had too many legs for him, and he broke and fell back. Starlight, as before, led by the stand, winning the heat and race in 2 41, Farmer taking the second money and Gray Jacket the third. Following is a was trotted "between heats" of the first. Five horses were entered, but C. G. Simmons' black mare Louise W. was drawn, leaving Chas. Record's blk g. Charcoal, F. S. Palmer's br. g. Corinth Boy, O. Dugan's br. g. Paddy, and P. Davis' s. g. Sorrel Tom to start, and they were assigned positions in the order above given. There was considerable difficulty in scoring and it was not until the sixth attempt that the horses got the word. They had hardly reached the turn before all of them broke, but they gradually settled down to work, Charcoal taking the lead at the first quarter, closely followed by Paddy, Corinth Boy, who continued to break badly, third, and Tom fourth. This position was kept all the way round to the third quarter, when Charcoal had a lead of ten lengths. Paddy crept up, Tom collared and passed the Boy, and in that order the horses went under the wire, Charcoal taking the heat in 2 40.

The horses were got away for the second heat at the second attempt. At the first turn the sulkies drawn by Charcoal and Paddy collided, smashing a number of spokes out of one of Paddy's wheels, but the driver pluckily stuck to his seat, and the horses kept on. At the half-mile Charcoal led, Paddy was second, the Boy third and Tom, who broke badly, fourth. Paddy went up, however, and fell back among the rear horses, with whom he "sat nobly," while Charcoal kept on steadily and got a lead of a half dozen lengths.—But Dugan soothed Paddy's perturbed spirit, he settled down to a trot which left his antagonists far in the rear, and went for Charcoal. The black horse was too far ahead, however, and came in so at the finish, making the heat in 2:41½, Paddy second, Corinth Boy third, and Sorrel Tom, who exhibited a most reprehensible inclination to run, was distanced.

At the beginning of the third heat Charcoal took the lead, as before, with Paddy right after him, but at the turn the latter broke and the Boy took the second place, showing that when he can be kept on his feet he can trot in good style. Charcoal kept steadily pounding away and at the half mile was at least fifteen lengths ahead of the other horses. The Boy and Paddy had some sharp work, both breaking at intervals, but the former got the second place and held it home. Charcoal's time, 2:42, winning the heat and race, Paddy taking second money and Corinth Boy the third. Following is a

SUPREME JUDICIAL COURT

EASTERN DISTRICT LAW TERM.

Tuesday, June 16th. The session of the Law Term of the Supreme Judicial Court for the Eastern District, composed of Aroostook, Washington, Piscataquis, Hancock, Waldo and Penobscot counties, began in this city to day, Appleton, C. J., Cutting, Walton, Barrows, Danforth and Peters, J. J., being present. Causes are to be heard from the several counties in the order above stated. The whole number of cases entered at this term is ninety-eight, divided as follows:—Aroostook, nine, Washington, fourteen; Piscataquis, six; Hancock, twelve; Waldo, seventeen; Penobscot, forty.

The first action submitted was—

No. 7.—Theo. Cary et al vs. Joseph Warner.

Trespass for a breaking and entry of a blacksmith shop standing on land in Houlton claimed by both parties, the defendant admitting the acts complained of, and justifying them under his claim of ownership. The plaintiffs claimed by thirty years' open, notorious, exclusive, and adverse possession of the premises, their original entry having been under a levy of execution thereon, which they also set up as giving them title. The defendant contests the validity of this levy because extended upon the debtor's interest in part of an entire tract which he owned in common with another person; it is said that he is estopped to make this objection, but the reply is, he has since bought the half formerly belonging to his co-tenant, and can, therefore, make this defence under the title thus derived; but the plaintiffs further say that defendant is estopped by proceedings upon a petition for partition of the premises, in 1845, to which he was made a party respondent and answered by attorney and partition was duly ordered and made under those proceedings, the locus in quo being parcel of the share set off to the plaintiffs' grantor.

The defendant, to defeat plaintiffs' possessory title, sets up a life-lease held by his father, which was conveyed to the defendants May 31, 1843, and the plaintiffs contend that it was thereby merged and extinguished, but the defendant asserts that it was kept alive by prior attachments and levies which destroyed the effect of the assignment to him. As to one of these levies, the plaintiffs say it did not cover the locus in quo, and that the attachment upon which the other rests was void because made upon a writ containing the general money counts without any specification.

It was said in argument that the title to the whole foundry property of the Carys in Houlton would be determined by the result of this case.

Madigan & Donworth, and Strickland. — L. & C. M. Powers.

No 8.—John B Fournier vs Solomon Cyr, Applt.

Trafton, E. Madigan and Herrin. — P. C. Keegan.

Submitted on briefs.

No. 9.—Benj Getchell vs. Michael Gooden and logs.

Action to secure an alleged lien for labor on logs. The log owners appeared and demurred because the declaration contained no statement that the suit was brought within sixty days after the logs arrived at the place of manufacture or sale. The demurrer was sustained, and the plaintiff excepted.

Robinson & Hutchinson. — Madigan & Donworth.

No. 10.—Mark Gray vs Inhabitants of Houlton.

To be argued in writing.

Madigan & Donworth. — Herrin.

No 11.—Samuel T. King et al vs Aroostook County.

The question is whether or not the owners of the east half of a township are legally taxable to pay the expense of building a road lying wholly in the western half of the township. The different halves were granted by the State at different times to different parties, and have ever since been owned separately, and separately assessed for State, county and road taxes, five-twelfths of the costs of the road mentioned being assessed on the eastern, and seven-twelfths on the western half.

Madigan & Donworth. — Robinson, Co. Att'y.

No. 12.—L. Powers vs. Theo. Cary.

Postponed to await arrival of defendant's counsel.

Jewett, Madigan & Donworth, Herrin. — Strickland, Baker, Burnham.

No. 13.—Henry M. Prentiss, Applt. from County Commissioners on petition of R. F. Coburn.

To be argued in writing.

Herrin. — Robinson.

No. 14.—John V. Putnam in Eq. vs. Wm. H. Burrill, Adm'r, et al.

Herrin. — Powers.

No. 15.—Alexander W. Timony vs. James Timony and logs.

This case involved same question as No. 9, and was submitted on briefs.

Robinson & Hutchinson. — Madigan & Donworth.

This completed the Aroostook cases, and the Court adjourned to afternoon.

No. 37.—Winslow Bates, Adm'r, vs. Robert M. Loring.
To be argued in writing.

No. 46.—Thos. Johnson vs. Frontier Steamboat Company.
To be argued in writing.
Pike, Grangers. — McNichol.

The following cases were presented from Piscataquis county:

No. 55.—Susan Rand vs. Adonijah Webber.

Assumpsit to recover value of ten acres of land which defendant promised the plaintiff were included in a conveyance of a farm by him to her, but which proved not to be within the description of the deed. Defence, a general denial, and that assumpsit is not the proper remedy.

Everett. — Lebroke & Pratt.

No. 56.—Uriah T. Pearson vs. James S. Carney.

Trespass brought by a late collector of Orneville against the late treasurer of that town for taking and selling lumber belonging to the plaintiff. The defendant justifies his action by saying that he merely issued the warrant of distress, on which this property was taken and sold, in the execution of official duty and to enforce payment of the balance of the taxes committed to the plaintiff as collector and not accounted for by him. Pearson says that his omission to collect the whole of the taxes arose from the insufficiency of the warrant delivered to him. The defendant answers that he had actually collected and in his hands, and had not paid over a sum larger than that for which his property was taken and sold on the distress-warrant.

Lebroke & Pratt. — Everett, Young.

CROPS AND BUSINESS AT THE WEST.

The New York Evening Post says that a member of one of the oldest banking houses in that city has just returned from a tour of 4000 miles through New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Iowa, Michigan and Minnesota, undertaken for the express purpose of learning the condition of the country by personal observation, for which he had special facilities. As the result of his travels and investigation, he reports that present indications promise the largest crops ever raised in the West. This applies not only to grain, but to all other staple products of that section. The farmers, who secured a good crop last year and obtained their cash for it, are now, he says, generally free from debt and in a most satisfactory condition. Stimulated by their success last season, they have planted a much larger area than ever before, and their labors have been seconded by unusually favorable weather. The crops are now so vigorous and far advanced that it is thought no subsequent changes of weather can seriously affect the harvest. He reports business in the Western cities as generally dull, but not nearly so dull as in New York. Both merchants and customers have, as a rule, been very cautious in their purchases, and the country is bare of goods. The country trade is growing very active, however, and the largest jobbing house in Chicago is doing a heavier business than ever before. Its members say that their collections in the country were never so good and that their trade this year will probably amount to $40,000,000. A large firm of pork packers and grain commission merchants, having houses in both Illinois and Indiana, expressed similar views, saying that in twenty years' experience they had never known such favorable prospects for the crops throughout the West. The prospects for the railroads and for business generally are said to be correspondingly favorable.

Sumner and the Chief Justiceship.—Caleb Lyon of Lyonsdale having made the statement that President Lincoln offered the Chief Justiceship of the United States to Senator Sumner a writer in the New York Tribune recently entirely demolished the possible truth of such an assertion by a plain statement of facts. Meeting in our city yesterday a former member of Congress and an intimate personal friend of Mr. Sumner, the report was a topic of conversation between us. He suggested that the story told by Mr. Lyon was a fiction, for he was knowing to all the incidents which preceded the nomination of Mr. Chase. Mr. Chase at one time had spoken disparagingly of President Lincoln, but Old Abe, though aware of these utterances, spoke of Mr. Chase in the kindest terms. Mr. Sumner was anxious that Mr. Chase should receive the appointment, and he urged the President to make it. Mr. Lincoln suggested the names of other well-known lawyers, but when he finally concluded to send in the nomination, he wrote the name of Mr. Chase without hesitation. Soon after he had done so, our friend happened in at the White House, when Old Abe remarked, "I have done something that will please you; I have sent in the name of Mr. Chase as Chief Justice. I never had any other person seriously in my mind, and of course it was the right thing to do, looked at in any light."—There are other incidents connected with this appointment, but the remark made by Mr. Lincoln that he had never seriously thought of naming any other person for that position rather destroys what we think is a bit of invention on the part of Caleb Lyon of Lyonsdale.—[Boston Journal.

Logan Giving it Up. A Washington special says Senator Logan left on Monday night for Springfield, Ill., where he has been invited to deliver a speech upon the political situation. He will take occasion to express his views on the finances, and present the relations of Congress and the President on the subject. The question of a third term is also mentioned by his friends as one which will receive considerable attention. His leaving is accepted as indicating his conviction that no financial measure can pass at this session.

Death of a Prominent Democrat. Hon. Virgil Delphini Parris, who is known by reputation to thousands of Maine people, as an active Democratic politician, died at his residence at Paris Hill Saturday morning at four o'clock after being an invalid for two years from paralysis. Mr. Parris was born in Buckfield, February 18th, 1807, and was, accordingly, at his decease in the 68th year of his age. He was a son of Josiah Parris, and a cousin of Governor Parris. He graduated at Waterville College in 1827 at the age of 20. After studying the profession of law, he became in 1831 Assistant Secretary of the Maine Senate. From 1832 to 1836 he served as a member of the Legislature. He was elected a member of the 26th Congress, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Timothy J. Carter, of Paris, who then represented what is now a part of the second district, and in 1839 was re-elected. After the completion of his second term in Congress, he was chosen State Senator from Oxford county, in 1842 and 1843. In 1843, when Edward Kavanagh became, by the death of Governor Fairfield, Acting Governor of the State, Mr. Parris was chosen his successor as President of the Senate. In 1844, President Tyler appointed Mr. Parris United States Marshal for the District of Maine, and he continued to hold this office during the administration of President Polk, till 1849. When President Pierce was inaugurated in 1853, Mr. Parris was appointed special agent, and subsequently held the office of naval storekeeper at the Kittery Navy Yard, under Buchanan.

With the practical breaking up of the Democratic party, Mr. Parris retired from office to his home in Oxford county, where, during the war he was one of the most bitter opponents and at times did not conceal his sympathy with the secession cause. He has until the past two years been a central figure in the Democratic councils, a determined man of the old style, the dread of the Young Democracy and the terror of those who sought to "fix things."

In his social relations, Mr. Parris was highly esteemed by all who had the pleasure of his intimate friendship, and as a genial companion and a true friend.—[Portland Press.

THE GREAT BLOOD REMEDY IS VEGETINE.

CIRCULATION OF THE BLOOD.

The circulation of the blood is the life of the body, and its stoppage is death. No disease can lurk in the body without first being generated in the blood, and no disease can possibly lie in the body if the blood is pure. Vegetine is the great blood purifier.

SCROFULA

Scrofulous Humors

The Vegetine has cured many cases of Scrofula of five, ten and twenty years standing, where the patient has had many physicians, tried many of the known remedies, and, after trying the Vegetine, the common remark is "It acts differently, works differently from any medicine I have ever taken." Vegetine will cleanse Scrofula [illegible].

CANCER

Cancerous Humor

With this complaint Vegetine has [illegible] worked [illegible] from any other [illegible] the medical faculty [illegible] root of the disease, and then works its way [illegible] foundation and continues gradually out towards the skin, making the sore smaller from day to day and finally the disease is eradicated [illegible].

MERCURIAL DISEASES

The conviction is in the public mind as well as the medical profession, that the remedies supplied by the Vegetable Kingdom are more safe, more successful in the cure of disease than mineral medicines. Vegetine is composed of roots, barks and herbs. It is pleasant to take, and is perfectly safe to give to an infant. Do you need it? Do not fail to try it. You will never regret it.

TUMORS

Dr. T[illegible] says: "It would be impossible for me to enumerate the diseases for which the Vegetine should be used. I know of no disease which will not admit of its use, with good results. A great many numerable complaints are caused by poisonous secretions in the blood, which can be entirely expelled from the the system by the use of the Vegetine. When the blood is perfectly cleansed the disease rapidly yields; all pains cease, healthy action is promptly restored, and the patient is cured."

FEMALE WEAKNESS.

Vegetine acts directly upon the causes of these complaints. It invigorates and strengthens the whole system, acts upon the secretive organs, allays inflammation, cleanses and cures ulceration, cures constipation, regulates the bowels. In fact, there is no disease and pains in the back cease. The Vegetine gives so quick relief, and is so effective in its cure, as it was in female Weakness, it has never failed in one instance.

CANKER.

Cankerous Humor.

Vegetine will eradicate every trace of Canker or Cankerous Humor from the system. Do not leave off taking Vegetine while you are obtaining help and feel better, but take it regularly and effect a cure of the disease. The time and quantity of Vegetine to be taken to effect a cure depends upon the nature and severity of the disease.

PIMPLES ON THE FACE AND ERUPTIONS OF THE SKIN

For this complaint Vegetine is the great remedy. It cleanses and purifies the blood, sending pimples, eruptions and humors to disappear, and does its work in a perfectly natural way. Reason should teach us that a blotch, rough or pimpled skin depends entirely upon an internal cause, and no outward application can ever cure the defect.

SALT RHEUM.

Vegetine has cured many cases of Salt Rheum, and many of them of several years standing, where many other remedies have failed to effect a cure. All forms of this disease occur most frequently in the spring and autumn, and are usually attended with burning, tingling and very troublesome itching, especially when the blood is in a heated condition.

Read the testimonials which appear in this paper every Wednesday and Saturday.

VEGETINE IS SOLD BY ALL DRUGGISTS.

Take her book
Her lips were red
Her eyes were brown

Silence and Chasing pain
Passed on every feature
Beauty drew—
All could guess

For no good
There she stood,
Nothing near her
Space kept wide,
Those beside,
Women seemed to fear her

Carriage crashed
It even dashed
There was still confusion
People rushed,
Terrified

All the crowd
Shrinking loud
[illegible] horror,
A in the wild

HOTEL WYLDE'S DEVICE

IN THREE CHAPTERS.

CHAPTER I.

[illegible] BACK DOWN HILL.

[illegible] talk such rubbish, Hal —said pretty Tottie Wylde, rashsomely as she say one brilliant summer day busily [illegible] with her parasol in the soft sand [illegible] Down a retiring beauty on the southern coast. Her younger brothers and sisters were busy in the neighborhood, digging caves and building forts, while Tottie, the eldest of the family, sat [illegible] with her cousin, Edward Keller, pursed for a holiday from college. Harry Wylde, the only son of the house, was away [illegible] with his father, the head of the firm of Wylde, Wylde & Co., solicitors, Lincoln's Inn Fields.

"You're beaten me, Tot," he feebly uttered, as he opened his eyes and saw those arms were supporting him. She answered him: "Oh, Eddie, darling, I'm so sorry!"

"Never mind it, Tot," he said. "I'm all right now!" and in proof of the fact he turned to get up. A sharp yell of pain dispelled the idea—the man's left arm was broken, and poor Tottie's heart was very sad as she and Henry helped him down to the Royal Hotel in Seasurf, where they were all staying—Jack having flown on ahead to have a surgeon in readiness.

Mr. Mark and Mrs. Wylde, with Tottie and the two boys, made up in all a strangely clever family. Proud and humble in a breath, despising wealth while they reveled in it, disliking poverty, and fawning for the number of poor friends they cultivated, morning society, and yet enjoying it, with a keen zest, utterly uncontrolled by caste or its traditions, and at the same time proud of their high birth, they stalked, noble savages, in the hunting-grounds of fashion. The grand Wylde manner, from whose stately gorges they had emerged but a year or two back, had (their friends said) no little to do with this contempt for common Saxon customs; and had not Edwin Keller been a constant visitor to the old castle in the troubled halls, as well as a kinsman by blood, he would never have come to be called "Eddie, darling!" by the only daughter, or held the place he did in the family as a sort of tamed attache, whom Tottie was not unlikely to take [illegible] her head to marry some fine day.

"Now, I'm sure I don't know where you are to get bread and cheese from, Tottie, if you do,' said Mrs. Wylde one day, (on their way to Seasurf) sitting half stifled in a gorgeous drawing room of a Brook street hotel.

"We can color photographs, ma, dear!" answered Tottie, laughing merrily at the folly. Not that she meant to marry Edwin or any one else, she was very fond of him—as she was of her brother Jack or Harry—but she had no intention of being worried with a husband as all—that she hadn't, and told him so very plainly when for the thousandth time he tried to get her into a sentimental mood.

The Wyldes (with Edwin for their guest) when they arrived at Seasurf, much half the ground floor at the "Royal"—with wide French windows opening on mossy grass, gay flowers, with shrubs and greens of all shades and below, the heaving violet sea, reaching away unbroken into an eternity of dimness, as it seemed, [illegible] deep, crooning echoes of warning back to mutinur ceaselessly on the [illegible] beach. A glorious place for love-making, a glorious time, and a glorious prize [illegible] and sea and flowers, and warmth with [illegible] breezes, and calm and seclusion—opportunities everywhere and [illegible] very respect, but in spite of all Edwin Keller made no progress. Tottie only laughed at him, and he sulked and with despair sometimes, then [illegible] attempted with [illegible] her crushing power, as he almost dreaded less hopelessly dying that night down to [illegible] she was [illegible] He was but a poor [illegible] and taking short rates of special cases for the [illegible] [illegible] [illegible]
